The table area is a large grid with a low-resolution, pixelated appearance. It is divided into four quadrants by a vertical line and a horizontal line. The top-left quadrant is light blue, the top-right is light green, the bottom-left is light yellow, and the bottom-right is light red. The grid contains various colored squares and rectangles, representing course requirements for the 1st and 2nd semesters. Some squares are red, some are yellow, some are green, and some are blue. The overall appearance is that of a digital degree map or a course requirement chart.
